Stacey:

That's fine. We will provide you with our written responses on Monday. I'm sure you understand that, with regard to the 2004 Conectiv offset methodology, we will need you to provide more than the footnote you inserted into the proposal. Please pull the file from 2004 and provide us with actual documentation used to support the offset calculation in that MOA. This is a public document and it should not be a problem providing this to us.

Best regards,

Pete
